

altar

chancel

congregation

evangelist

font

nave

pulpit

rood screen

Insert text here

The people who attend church.

The part of the church near the altar which is often separated from the rest of the church by steps or a screen. The vicar and choir normally sit in the chancel.

The special table in a church where the bread and wine are prepared and made holy.

The main area in the church where the congregation sit.

The special bowl where babies are baptised. Holy water is poured over their heads to bless them.

Someone who wants to convince people to become Christian.

Insert text here

A screen made from wood or stone that separates the nave from the chancel. It is supposed to keep the most special part of the church where the water ,bread and wine are blessed away from the congregation.

The area where the vicar reads the bible or talks to the congregation from.