The Jewish word for a good deed

A religion based on the Old Testament

Some families are Jewish. Jewish people believe in God and follow a book called the Torah.

Many families decorate boxes or cans, and make a habit of putting money in them before Shabbat.
When they are full the money is taken out and given to a person or organization in need.

Tikkun Olam is a Hebrew word that translates in English as 'world repair'.

To have belief in and worship a God or Gods

To show respect toward God
