

adolescence

adulthood

asexual reproduction

baby

childhood

development

egg

fertilisation

gestation

When reproduction can occur with only one parent.

The stage of development when a human is fully grown and mature.

The social and emotional stage of the development between childhood and adulthood.

The changes that happen when a person changes from a baby to a child, to a teenager and then to an adult.

The stage before puberty and adulthood.

The youngest stage of life. A baby is dependent on others for survival.

The time when a foetus develops in the womb – 9 months.

The process of the male and female cells fusing together.

The female reproductive cell.

grow

menstruation

puberty

reproduction

sexual reproduction

sperm

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

The physical stage of development between childhood and adulthood

When a female body discharges the lining of the uterus. This happens approximately once a month.

To get bigger.

The male reproductive cell.

When reproduction requires two parents (one male and one female) to reproduce offspring.

To produce young / offspring.

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here